

Pet Policy

Pets are permitted on the University of Hartford campuses only while under the direct and immediate control of their owner. Owners are responsible for cleaning up after their pets while on University grounds. They are not permitted in University buildings.

Animals used for approved research projects are permitted on University grounds and in certain buildings. Additionally, trained helping animals (sometimes referred to as service animals) such as guide dogs for the blind, as well as animals being trained as such, are permitted on University grounds and in University buildings when used by persons with registered disabilities. Fish are permitted in residence halls in accordance with The Source.

July 2005